

Food Safety MS Auditor/ Lead Auditor Training Course

TÜV NORD is a well-established and reliable partner for inspection and certification services throughout the world. With more than 1,200 experienced experts, our pool of auditors guarantees the highest level of competence in the certification of management systems, products and personnel.

Learning objectives:

The aim of this course is to help students with a food industry background to assess the adequacy of the design, implementation and improvement of a food industry organization's food safety management system against ISO 22000 in accordance with ISO 19011 and ISO/IEC 17021. In detail, the training course will provide technical knowledge and practical skills to become a competent Lead Auditor, including via the following:

- purpose of a food safety management system
- explain the role of an auditor in the planning, conducting, reporting and follow-up of audits as per ISO 22000, ISO 19011 and ISO/IEC 17021
- describe the fundamental purpose of a food safety management system as well as the principles, processes and techniques used for the assessment and management of food safety hazards
- explain the purpose, content and interrelationship of ISO 22000, ISO 9000 series, guidance documents (ISO 15161) industry practice, standard operating procedures and the legislative framework relevant to a FSMS
- interpret the requirements of ISO 22000

- describe background and general food safety issues, including e.g. concept of food safety risk management as a strategic business driver, international frameworks and protocols
- purpose of and differences between 1st, 2nd and 3rd party audits

Successful completion of the course (including examination) will result in the issue of a certificate which may be used to support an application to become registered as an IRCA auditor. Being certified as an IRCA auditor is a clear statement that you are a recognized, qualified and capable auditing professional.

Preconditions/knowledge:

This course is designed for experienced food safety professionals seeking an understanding of the management systems approach to food safety and the skills required to audit effectively against food safety management systems standards.

Prospective students who are existing qualified auditors in other fields (QMS, EMS etc.) may find the 3-day IRCA/2090 FSMS Auditor Conversion Training Course more appropriate.

Group of participants:

All those who require detailed knowledge of FSMS auditing processes are welcome. Management system consultants, relevant levels of management who are involved in ISO 22000 implementation and maintenance, personnel working with regulatory authorities and all those who require a detailed knowledge of the FSMS audit process. The number of participants is limited to max. 20 people.

Duration:	five days with concluding examination
Location/date:	business hotels, training centers or customers premises if required
Course instructor:	professional lecturers from TÜV NORD or appointed partner organization

Conditions of participation and payment

Registration must be in writing (e.g. also by fax and email) before the start of the seminar. Applications are recorded in an address file, processed in the order in which they are received, and then confirmed if accepted. Registration is binding for the participant.

It is only possible for the participant to cancel the registration cost-free up to three weeks before the start of the seminar. Cancellation must be in writing. If cancellation is received later or the participant fails to attend or breaks off the seminar prior to completion, we will charge the full amount for the seminar. The relevant date is the date when the cancellation is received at our office. It is possible to name a substitute at any time. Payment of the seminar fee confers entitlement to receive the seminar documents.

The participation fees are net prices. If not stated to the contrary, the current statutory rate of VAT must be added. The participation fee falls due upon receipt of invoice, without any deduction. Please only transfer the stated invoice amount following receipt of invoice, stating the invoice number.

TÜV NORD retains the right to cancel a seminar based on an insufficient number of participants or if reasons for cancellation exist for which TÜV NORD is not responsible (e.g. illness of the trainer, Act of God). The participants are informed immediately in such cases. Any seminar fees that have already been paid are reimbursed; further claims are expressly excluded!

Final provisions

If one or more of the above provisions should be or become invalid, the validity of the remaining conditions shall not be affected. Provision(s) which approach as closely as possible the business or economic objective of the contract and which take due account of the interests of both parties shall replace the ineffective provision(s).

The data required for registration is only transferred to third parties after the current valid data protection regulations have been taken into consideration.
