ISO 9001:2015 Lead Auditor Training Course (Quality Management Systems)

TÜV NORD is a well-established and reliable partner for inspection and certification services throughout the world. With more than 4,800 experienced experts, our pool of auditors guarantees the highest level of competence in the certification of management systems, products and personnel.

Learning objectives

The aim of this course is to provide students with the knowledge and skills required to perform first, second and third-party audits of quality management systems against ISO 9001, in accordance with ISO 19011 and ISO/IEC 17021, as applicable. In detail, the training course will provide students with the basis to become a competent Lead Auditor, including via the following:

- purpose of a quality management system (QMS)
- explain the role of an auditor in the planning, conducting, reporting and follow-up of audits as per ISO 9001, ISO 19011 and ISO/IEC 17021
- benefits of a quality management system
- benefits of a third-party accredited certification
- concepts and terminology defined in the standard
- requirements for QMS documentation and differences between documents, documented procedures and records
- writing nonconformity reports
- explain the purpose of and differences between first-party, second-party and third-party certification audit of management systems

Successful completion of the course (including examination) will result in the issue of a certificate which may be used to support an application to become registered as an IRCA auditor. Being certified as an IRCA auditor is a clear statement that you are a recognized, qualified and capable auditing professional.

Duration: five days with concluding examination	Location/date: business hotels, training centers or customers' premises if required	Course instructor: professional lecturers from TÜV NORD or appointed partner organization

Recommended prior knowledge

The students are expected to know the concept of quality management and its sustainable development. Furthermore, they need awareness of the model of a process based quality management system, as well as the structure and content of ISO 9001.

Successful participation is supported by knowledge of the PDCA-cycle and the eight quality principles as well as the process approach used in quality management. It is recommended that participants attend an IRCA QMS Foundation Course in advance.

 Group of participants
