TUV NORD Training

Your preferred business improvement partner through effective and innovative training solutions.

We provide HRD Corp Claimable Courses

Training Solutions Tailored to Your Needs

We are delighted to offer a range of training options designed to suit your organisation's specific requirements and preferences.

In-House Training:

Our in-house training programmes are conducted directly at your premises and are exclusively available to your employees. This option is ideal for organizations seeking to develop a team's knowledge and skills in a way that is customised to internal objectives and aligned with company practices.

Choosing in-house training helps you:

- ✓ Save on travel expenses and minimise time away from work.
- ✓ Maintain confidentiality of your content, discussions, and case studies.
- ✓ Foster team cohesion through shared learning experiences.

Public Training:

When hosting an in-house session is not feasible, organisations can take advantage of our public training courses, offered through our published training calendar.

These sessions provide participants with an opportunity to:

- ✓ Focus fully on learning, away from workplace distractions.
- ✓ Network and exchange ideas with professionals from a wide range of industries.
- ✓ Gain fresh perspectives through shared experiences and best practices.

Remote Online Training:

Remote online training offers the flexibility to join expert-led courses from anywhere in the world. Delivered through user-friendly platforms such as Zoom or Microsoft Teams, these sessions provide the same high-quality learning experience as our classroom courses—without the need for travel.

With this option, participants can:

- ✓ Access training from any location with an internet connection.
- ✓ Engage interactively with instructors and fellow participants.
- ✓ Join courses/ webinar organised by TUV NORD Training centres in other countries.

Why choosing us for your training solution?
